

Excellence Awards 2014

We think our staff are excellent and that is why we want to recognise individuals and teams who have made a difference to our organisation. Staff can be nominated in the following categories by colleagues, patients, volunteers and members of the public.

Excellence in quality customer care recognising staff who have demonstrated a positive, compassionate attitude to patients and clients in everything they do.

Excellence in volunteering recognising staff or teams who, through volunteering, have gone 'above and beyond' in their contribution to the organisation.

Excellence in quality services recognising staff or teams who have demonstrated a commitment to quality care through delivery of an action or project that has provided a positive outcome for their patient, guests, partners or colleagues.

Excellence in our environment

recognising staff or teams who have significantly contributed to making our environment greener, safer or cleaner.

Excellence in demonstrating our values recognising staff or teams who have embedded our values into their everyday practice.

Excellence in innovation

recognising staff or teams who have developed a local innovation or invention, which has contributed significantly to improved patient/customer services.

Excellence in involvement and collaboration recognising an individual or team who has involved patients, carers and customers to build relationships, internally or externally, for the benefit of our services, patients and customers.

In no more than 250 words, simply tell us why the individual or team is "excellent". The deadline for entries will be Friday 26 September 2014. The winners will be announced at our Annual Review on Wednesday 29 October 2014.

Completed nomination forms can be sent in the following ways:

- emailed to the communications department on comms@gjnh.scot.nhs.uk
- left in the award drop box at Golden Jubilee National Hospital reception.
